A MAÏZING SESSION WITH...

Created in May 2009, "A Maïzing session with..." is a radio show broadcasted on the webradio KKWNE, dedicated to live improvised music and organised at the Maïzing Studio in Paris, by Anton Mobin. The program is established according to the meeting of several artists who come on tour to Paris. In the first season (May 2009-May 2010), "A Maïzing session with..." was 13 radio shows with 22 international artists. The season two is on the same way...

Session #19

Date: October 28th, 2010

With: :such: - Ian Linter - Rinus van Alebeek - Anton Mobin

FOUR SOLOS

Released by OFF/BRUMA

offb017

After the release of "offb015 - Three solos", Ian Linter and Anton Mobin decide to continue the solo series. This time, four solos improvised live on the radio, successively by :such: (tape manipulation), Ian Linter (electronic manipulation), Rinus van Alebeek (tape manipulation) & Anton Mobin (tape manipulation).

:SUCH:

The first meeting with :such: was during the Estafette Rue Cassette in Paris in June 2010.
:such: plays an heavy and dense ambient with a fine meditative touch. He played on two prepared tape desks by the great Doctor AxDelbor of the collective H.A.K.
:such: is also co-curator of the label SDZ Records and animator of the Crudités radio show.

IAN LINTER

Ian Linter is an original member of the Portuguese underground collective produções Ganza, co-founder of OFF/BRUMA netlabel, and also many other sonic entities, like the non-stop webradio Strange Frequencies Channel, under the label ASP. He records under several names but always in different aesthetics, like OLoF NiNe, ACT9, Airf'Auga or La Main Traumatique with Joséphine Muller, among others... His creations are electro-organic immediatism in any possible structure, through a real-time feedback series of necessary events...

RINUS VAN ALEBEEK

Rinus is an imminent member of the Berliner underground scene. Musician, curator, writer, cassetteur, he plays with Angie Yeowell, De Drones with Raoul Haarmannero, Diktat, Jeudi Pop among many other collaborations. He's also co-animator of the radio show "Radio On" with Adrian Shephard. Also, note that OFF/BRUMA was pleased to release offb007 dnasnow/mouseup - 7 with Zan Hoffman, in 2008. Last but not the least, Rinus van Alabeek is the curator and producer of Staaltape, the cassette division of the famous Staalplaat label.

ANTON MOBIN

Concrete music composer & radio producer addict of field recordings.
Co-curator of the collective H.A.K. and curator of the Improvisators Network.
Objects manipulator & improvisator experienced due to several meeting with international artists which one of the most important was certainly with Rinus van Alebeek in Berlin.
Always in search for new articulations between objects, manipulations, and interaction with his own body. A crack, a fold, a brightness, a jolt in the plan of the sound, a convexity of surface...

offb017 - Four solos consists of a solo act around fifty minutes by each creator, which is the best solution for everyone to discover the sound of each other for a collective improvisation later, where each of the four sound universes collapses in a singular one.
